Some people will say, “I just don’t believe in God!”

As if that settles the matter. As if God ceases to exist simply because they decide not to believe in Him.

But let me ask you something. Does your unbelief change reality?

If a man says, “I don’t believe in gravity,” and then jumps off a roof, his unbelief doesn’t change the truth. Gravity is still there.

And saying, “I don’t believe in God,” doesn’t make God disappear either.

We’ve been taught what to think, not how to think. But have you ever seriously examined the evidence of creation for yourself? Or have you simply accepted what someone else told you?

Here’s the real issue, if you’re being honest. It’s not an evidence problem. It’s an authority problem.

Many people reject God because they don’t want Him telling them how to live. They don’t want absolute authority, or a holy God who defines right and wrong. They want grey areas instead of black and white. They certainly don’t want a Creator to whom they must answer!

So rather than acknowledge His authority, they simply deny His existence.

The Bible says:

> The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God....

Psalm 14:1 (KJV - excerpt)

That might be strong language, but those aren’t my words. They’re God’s! The Bible calls the denial of God’s existence foolish.

One Final Question

You may say, “I don’t believe in God.”

But what if the real truth is this:

You do believe there is a God — you simply don’t want Him to be God over you?

Think carefully.

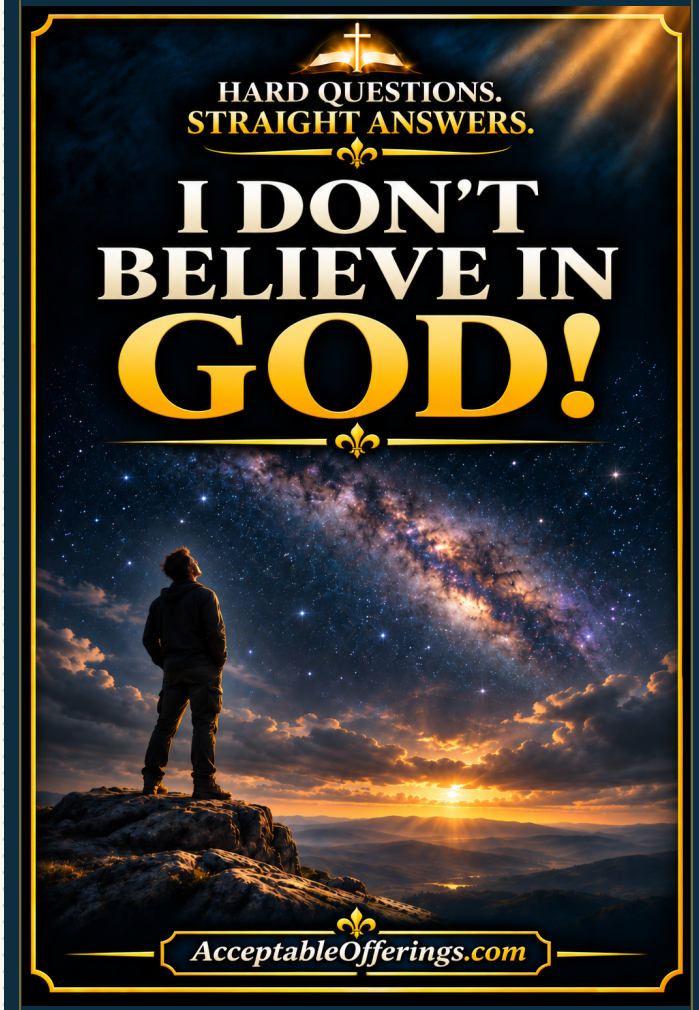

Because denying God doesn’t remove Him. It only leaves you unprepared to meet Him.

Why Would God Say That?

Because He's already made Himself known!

Look around you. The heavens, the earth, life itself, and the remarkable order of creation all testify to a Creator.

The Bible says:

> For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse:

Romans 1:20 (KJV)

Did you catch that? Without excuse!

God has revealed Himself through His creation. The problem isn't that man lacks light. It's that man loves darkness rather than light because his deeds are evil (John 3:19).

You didn't create yourself, and this world didn't create itself.

Deep down, mankind knows there is a God because God has made Himself known.

Some people may cry out to Him when death approaches. Others may remain silent. But whether they acknowledge Him or not, God's existence doesn't depend upon their confession.

And when they finally stand before Him, there will be no denying the truth.

Listen, GOD IS NOT ONE OF US!

People often speak of God as though He's simply a larger version of man. The "big guy upstairs," who ought to think and act the way we do.

But He's the Creator, and we're His creation. He doesn't need our permission or approval.

He is not the one on trial here. WE ARE!

Believing There Is a God Is Not Enough

Now let's get something straight. Simply acknowledging God's existence doesn't mean you're saved. Even the devils know He exists!

> Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble.

James 2:19 (KJV)

So the issue is much bigger than just believing God exists.

What are YOU going to do about it?

You've sinned against God, and one day you'll answer to Him. Your unbelief won't excuse your sin, and your opinions won't cancel His judgment.

But Here's the Good News!

Jesus Christ came into this world to save sinners. He died for our sins, was buried, and rose again.

God commands men everywhere to repent (Acts 17:30). Salvation is through repentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ (Acts 20:21).

You can continue denying God, or you can humble yourself before Him while there's still time.
